ABSTRACT

Teaching Turkish language to foreign people is not teaching the language only, also teaching the Turkish culture .An individual who started to learn Turkish language will develop the same approach to life as native Turkish speakers. Teaching Turkish will naturally shoulder Turkish culture transfer as a mission due to having strong and deep cultural roots behind the words and concepts. The stories , example dialogues and texts in books have very important role for fulfilling this mission. The sensitivity shown for choosing texts for teaching Turkish language is not shown for Teaching Turkish culture. In this study we will try to show you some example texts that are related to pointed issues above and share some ideal texts for teaching Turkish language and Turkish culture.
